To any extent possible, no employee should be permitted to work more than thirty six (36) hours straight without a break. However, in extreme emergencies, the hours may be extended under the direction of the Chief of Department.

When a vacancy occurs in a shift where full time employees are required to fill the shift, the alternating shift shall have first option of covering. EXAMPLE: If Shift 1 is vacant, then Shift 3 shall have first option of filling, and the same if Shift 3 is vacant, then Shift 1 will have first option of filling. Shifts 2 and Shift 4 shall operate the same.

In the event the Shift that has the option of filling is unavailable, then the shift shall be split between the on duty shift and their alternate, EXAMPLE: Shift 2 is vacant and Shift 4 is unable to work, then on duty Shift 1 will split the shift with Shift 3.

Part time employees shall fill any vacancy when full time employees are unavailable.

These Guidelines are subject to change should conditions warrant.
